Appeals.—Bishop Kilgo stated that the appeals from the Quarterly Conference of the Jordon Circuit, presented on yesterday, referring to the rental of parsonage and also to the rights of the preacher in charge to control the services in the churches of his charge, offered no concrete case of law, but were hypothetical. He therefore declined to make a ruling. In regard to the appeal from the Nashville District Conference the decision of the presiding elder is sustained. This appeal is as follows:

AN APPEAL TO THE BISHOP PRESIDING OVER THE TENNESSEE ANNUAL CONFERENCE AT COLUMBIA, TENNESSEE, OCTOBER 11, 1911, FROM THE NASHVILLE DISTRICT
CONFERENCE, HELD AT WEST END CHURCH MAY 9-11, 1911.

At the Nashville District Conference held at West End Church May 9-11, 1911, the Rev. Fitzgerald Sale Parker, D.D., General Secretary of the Epworth League Board and Editor of the Epworth Era and a member of the Louisiana Annual Conference, claimed membership in the Nashville District Conference and asked that his presence as a member of said Conference be recorded. In consequence of his claim, the following question was presented to the presiding officer in due form:

"NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE, May 1, 1911.

"To the Presiding Officer of the Nashville District Conference, Tennessee Annual Conference: Does paragraph 69 of the Discipline of 1910, relating to the composition of a District Conference, give to our connectional officers who reside in our city but who hold their membership in other Annual Conferences the right of membership in this District Conference?"

(Signed.) W. V. JARRATT."

"It does not.

(Signed.) H. B. REAMS, Presiding Elder."

On motion of E. B. Chappell, D.D., the District Conference appealed from the decision of the presiding elder to the bishop who shall preside over the next session of the Tennessee Annual Conference.

(Certified copy. JOHN DURRETT, Secretary.)

The ruling of the presiding elder is affirmed.

Whereas Paine College, at Augusta, Ga., is the only institution entirely supported and maintained by the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, for the education of negroes; and whereas this institution has made a notable record for the high quality of work already accomplished, and promises, under the leadership of Dr. J. D. "I give and bequeath to the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, the sum of five

Lord, who himself went about doing good; and whereas it will require the earnest and liberal coöperation of all our people to raise the $500,000 necessary for the proper equipment of this important institution; and whereas the educative work has been in progress for two years, and we believe the time has come to procure this sum; therefore be it

Resolved, That as pastors and laymen we will redouble our energies in the interest of the Galloway Memorial Hospital, and that we join heartily with the Commissioner in the inauguration and carrying out of such plans as may seem wisest during the ensuing Conference year; and that we recommend that a chairman for each district be named by the presiding elder, and be confirmed by this Conference, to co-operate with the Commissioner, presiding elders, pastors, and laymen in organizing each district and charge for the projection of a hospital campaign; and that a hospital committee, with power to enlarge itself, be appointed by each Quarterly Conference at its first session to inaugurate the educative work and organize a campaign for the solicitation of subscriptions in the individual charges under the direction of the Commissioner, presiding elder, district chairman, and pastor.

SUPPLEMENT.—REPORTS ADOPTED.

TEMPERANCE.

Representing the great Methodist family of Christians, anxious to suppress every vice and to enthrone every virtue, we hereby declare and resolve:

1. We are duty bound to go on unto perfection in the industrial, political, and spiritual world. To daily become more like Christ, we must conserve all of our faculties. Abusing or misusing our faculties and liberties is the intemperance which breeds vice, misery, and death. To keep the body, mind, and soul under the control of Christ is the perfection of temperance. To be subject to the evil spirit, in whatever form, is the height of intemperance.

2. The liquor-drinking habit in our nation is one of the worst forms of intemperance. It is wasting millions of money every year, wrecking homes, making prodigal sons and wayward daughters, breeding anarchy, destroying the happiness of mankind.

3. No government ought to license any business which breeds intemperance, drunkenness, and death. Hence we are unalterably opposed to the licensed saloon. May God help us to speed the day when the saloon will be as much under the ban of the law as lotteries, dueling, polygamy, and the white slave traffic!

4. We rejoice that Tennessee has by law prohibited the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, and we pray that every State and nation may soon do the same. We favor not only State-wide but nation-wide and world-wide abolition of the saloon and all its consorted and resultant evils, for the saloon is an evil everywhere.

5. We rejoice that our State-wide prohibition laws have been so generally honored and enforced throughout our State. We are deeply gratified to know that nearly all our State, county, city, and town officials, from Governor to constable, have so cheerfully given their influence and power to help enforce these most wholesome laws. They deserve all praise. We regret that some officers in our larger cities have tried to nullify these laws. This in no way dishonors the law. Wherever enforced, such laws have proved a great blessing. We pray that these officials may speedily turn themselves back to duty, and thus help our people on to happiness and perfection.

6. We urge that our next legislature preserve these laws inviolate and pass such other laws as will assure the strict enforcement of our temperance laws. If it be true, as charged, that public sentiment in one or two cities is against these laws, then let us all renew our efforts to build up a public sentiment in those cities that will support these and all other good laws. In the name of all that's holy, let us never repeal good general laws in deference to a bad local sentiment; but let us build up a good public sentiment in every locality to support the good laws. We believe that the best interests of all our people will be promoted by the election to office of only such citizens as will boldly fight for these principles.

7. We urge our Federal senators and representatives to speedily enact laws to stop the interstate shipment of liquors into dry territory and to stop the licensing of the manufacture and sale of liquors in dry territory. No one is now allowed to send intoxicating liquors through the mails; and we feel that liquor advertisements, whether in newspapers or otherwise, should not be allowed in the mails. We are glad that so many newspapers and journals are refusing all liquor advertisements. Every virile Christian publisher is like unto St. Paul in spreading the gospel.

8. Saloons have been removed from our Capitol grounds at Washington. If they are too bad to stay in the Capitol, they are too bad to stay anywhere; for every foot of American soil is just as sacred as the Capitol grounds.

9. No man's public service can be better than his private life. Every public official, from constable to President, ought to be a temperate, honest, God-fearing citizen whose life in private and in public is a worthy example for our children. He should be a maker and leader of righteous public sentiment and not a slave to the foes of human happiness. Let our people encourage and support such men, for in so doing they uphold the only true standard of public service.

10. The idea that a city must have a looser and lower standard of morals than the town or the country is against all reason and religion. The ten commandments and all moral laws apply alike to city and country. No State should allow a city in its bounds to dominate the rest of the State for the perpetuation of evil. Every city should demean itself for the material and moral welfare of all the State which supports it; and if it fail to do so, then the State should so regulate and control it as to suppress the evils that endanger and afflict the State. Just as our Federal government suppressed polygamy in Utah for the benefit of our whole nation, so our State should permit no city to license evils which are injurious to the moral and material welfare of all the people of the State.

11. We praise God for the great and good work of the Tennessee W. C. T. U. in behalf of Christian education, temperance, and civic righteousness. They have wrought a wonderful and glorious work, whose benefits none can measure. We hope they may daily grow in numbers, and that their enthusiasm may never decrease.

12. The Anti-Saloon League has our most cordial support in its noble Christian work. We pledge the League our earnest coöperation, and pray that its efforts may be everywhere crowned with righteous victory.

13. The sincere Christian is the best preventive and is the best cure of all our political and social ills. To have these we must have Christian mothers like Hannah of old; and we pray God that our mothers may set themselves anew to the happy and holy duty of raising children who, like Daniel, will stand for the right in every movement of society, Church, and State.

AMENDMENT ADOPTED AND MADE PART OF THE REPORT.

Realizing that so long as temptations are placed in the way of our young people they will continue to fall away from righteousness and into sin; realizing that the legalized saloon entices more young men to ruin than all the other devices of sin combined; realizing that a State which tolerates the existence of these cesspools of evil should not be called Christian, much less righteous; and realizing that the laws of a people furnish an index to their character, and that in a republic where universal suffrage is exercised every man is responsible to a degree for the laws under which he lives, we pledge ourselves to continue the battle in support of the four-mile law, under the provisions of which our entire State has been freed from the stain of the legalized saloon, and pledge our support to the Anti-Saloon League in its efforts to keep legalized saloons from within our borders and in its efforts to have the laws against the liquor traffic enforced.

We call upon the preachers in this Conference to present the teachings of the Bible on the use of intoxicants at least four times a year to their congregations, to the end that no man may sincerely say that the same is not condemned by the Word of God.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

We rejoice to report that our publishing interests in the main are in a prosperous condition. Marked advancement has been made along some lines. Especially is this true with reference to our periodicals becoming self-supporting. The work that we are undertaking to do through the circulation of religious literature is considerably diversified and demands thorough adaptation in the adjustment of our plans to meet the diversified character of the work. This demand is being met.

In the Methodist Review we have a periodical that is equal in its field to any to be found anywhere. The work of the editor, Dr. Gross Alexander, is to be heartily commended. We urge that more of our pastors not only subscribe for the Review, but that they make a diligent effort to put it in the hands of more of the laymen.

Considerable improvement has been made during the year in the Christian Advocate in its general make-up, and it is now filling a high place in the work of our Church. We express our thanks for the efforts of the editor, Dr. T. N. Ivey, and his assistants to give us a general organ of such a high character. We are glad to report that the paper is now on a self-supporting basis.

The wisdom of combining our missionary publications has by a year's experience been clearly proved. The Missionary Voice is now filling a long-felt need in that it is giving to our people missionary literature of the highest character in one publication that deals with every phase of our missionary operations. Dr. Winton, the new Editorial Secretary, brings to this position a very broad experience, and we most heartily commend the work that is being done by him and his assistants. We recommend that a strong effort be made by our pastors to increase the circulation of the Missionary Voice, especially among the laymen.

The Epworth Era has improved in every respect, and we rejoice to know that it is now on a self-supporting basis. We urge our pastors and members to place it in the hands of their young people.

No Church has a greater right to be proud of its Sunday school literature than has ours. We express our thanks to Drs. Chappell and Beaty for their diligent and untiring service in giving to us a Sunday school literature that is not surpassed by any in the land.

We note with pleasure that the subscription list of the Midland Methodist has had a healthy growth during the year, and urge that our pastors take an active interest in helping to further increase its circulation. We recommend the continuation of the following as a commission: G. A. Morgan, T. C. Ragsdale, and J. I. Finney. We further recommend that this commission, after consulting with the commissions from the Holston and Memphis Conferences, hold a joint meeting with these commissions for the purpose of increasing the efficiency of the Midland Methodist.

We heartily commend the efforts of the Publishing Agents to increase the circulation of our publications, and recommend that the pastors aid in this work by sending to the Agents the names and addresses of all the Sunday school superintendents and other persons likely to become interested in the purchasing of books or libraries.

We express our pleasure that the Book Committee has been able to pay to the Superannuate Fund $10,000, and trust that in the near future they will be able to pay even larger amounts.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

The Board of Church Extension submits the following report:

Church extension has done and is doing a great work in Southern Methodism. During the twenty-nine years of our history aid has been given to 8,062 church buildings—about one-half of the total number owned by the Church.

Church extension has aided more than five and one-third churches for every week of the twenty-nine years of its existence.

The total amount raised is $3,043,065. There are 621 church buildings in the bounds of the Tennessee Conference, and of this number 265 have Church extension money in them. The homeless congregations number 58.

This Conference has paid a grand total of $55,193, which has been paid to 283 churches in twenty-nine years of its existence in the Tennessee Conference.

Our Board believes that the time is rapidly approaching when we should make loans rather than donations to a large per cent of our Churches. Many of our Churches are able to repay these donations, and this money could be reloaned to Churches at a low rate of interest. We have in our Conference loan fund the sum of $724, which is now available for loans to Churches in our own Conference. There is nothing that can bear as rich fruit in our work as the development of loan funds. We urge our preachers to bring this matter to the consideration of our people.

The last General Conference transferred to the Church Extension Board the work of aiding parsonages. An assessment of $50,000 was made on the whole Church for this purpose. After the division of our receipts, on the basis of fifty per cent with the General Board, one-fifth shall be available for parsonage aid. It is the policy of your Board to insist on comfortable and well-located homes for our preachers, and to urge the importance of keeping these parsonages insured. Applications for parsonage aid to this Board should be made as in the case of churches. We ask that our preachers desiring aid for churches, parsonages, or deeds to church property write the Secretary, at Cumberland City, Tenn., for blanks at least one month before the session of the Annual Conference.

Your Board calls the attention of our Sunday schools to the matter of Sunday school loan funds, which are to be used in building well-equipped Sunday school rooms.

We again mention the matter of the building of our representative church in Washington, D. C., and ask that all who can will assist in this important work.

Our General Board is creating a Church extension literature, and we call the attention of all our preachers and people to its merits and to let them know that it can be had free by writing to Dr. W. F. McMurry, Louisville, Ky.

Your Board very earnestly ask that the presiding elders appoint or ask the President of our Board to appoint some one to represent this work at their District Conferences.

We have made the following appropriations—to wit:

Bee Spring, Columbia District	290

J. B. MURREY, *Treasurer.SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

The Sunday School Board of the Tennessee Conference begs leave to submit the following report:

1. We regret to note that there were two hundred and thirty-one Churches and fifty-nine charges in which no Children's Day exercises were held this year, and that there was a considerable falling off in the Children's Day offering for the year, the offering amounting to only $1,305.67, whereas the offering for the preceding year amounted to $1,939.77. We urge upon the pastors and superintendents of the Conference the importance of giving more emphatic attention to this red-letter day in our Sunday school calendar. Aside from its educational value and its usefulness as a means of calling attention to and awakening an interest in the Sunday school, it furnishes the only resources at the command of the Board for carrying on its work. We need money to furnish literature to needy schools in mission territory, to hold institutes for the training of our teachers, and to promote Sunday school extension. Let us therefore adopt as our motto for the coming year: "A Children's Day service and an offering in every charge in the Conference." This standard has already been reached by several of our Conferences, and there is no reason why the Tennessee Conference may not do as well as others. We need more and better Sunday schools for bringing our boys and girls to a saving knowledge of Christ and for instructing our young converts in the knowledge of God's Word and training them in his work, and this is at least one of the ways by which we may be enabled to develop them.

2. The organized class is rapidly becoming one of our most effective means for training young converts in service, as well as one of our most useful evangelistic agencies. It has already been instrumental in putting thousands of men and women to studying God's Word and in leading them into active service as soul winners. We recommend that wherever it is possible adult classes be organized, and that in all cases they be enrolled in our Wesley Adult Bible Class Department, to the end that our young people may be taught and trained under our own direction and thus kept loyal both to God and the Church of which they are members.

3. We call particular attention to our Teacher-Training Department, designed for the preparation of our Sunday school teachers for their work. Every Sunday school, if it be possible, should have a teacher-training class.

4. As most of our pastors doubtless understand, we have at present two kinds of Sunday school literature—namely: (a) We still issue the uniform literature for all the various grades of the Sunday school, and our Sunday School Editor is endeavoring to improve this literature from year to year so as to meet the demands of any school that may still prefer to use it, as a vast majority of our schools do. (b) Three years ago last summer the International Convention at Louisville instructed the International Lesson Committee to prepare as rapidly as possible a complete series of graded courses for all the grades of the Sunday school. A number of these courses have already been issued, and literature based upon them has been prepared under the direction of our Sunday School Editor and is now on sale at the Publishing House. The principle of the graded course is pedagogically sound, and we doubt not that the graded courses are superior to the uniform lessons for schools that are prepared to use them. As their use, however, involves a number of difficulties, our advice to pastors and superintendents is to send to our Department of Sunday School Supplies for samples and make a careful investigation before positively deciding to introduce them. In any case, however, we believe that all our schools should use our own literature. We want to make of our children not only fully equipped Christians, but also intelligent and loyal Methodists, and we are not likely to do this if we put into their hands literature introduced by irresponsible publishers. We are glad to note a rapid increase in the circulation of our literature, the net increase for 1910-11 having been 101,023.

5. We heartily favor the plan of the General Sunday School Board to erect a Model Sunday School Building at the Southern Assembly, Waynesville, N. C. We believe that this is destined to become the great center for religious assemblies for Southern Methodism, and we feel therefore that ample provision should be made for having the Sunday school cause duly represented there. We trust that, according to the suggestion of the General Board, each of our Sunday schools will take a voluntary offering for the Model Building on Rally Day or as near thereto as practicable.

6. We call the attention of our Sunday school superintendents to the fact that the General Sunday School Board at its last session adopted a standard of excellence for our schools, and recommend that as far as practicable this standard be adopted. Leaflets giving detailed explanation of the standards of excellence may be obtained from the Department of Sunday School Supplies, Nashville, Tenn.

7. We deplore the fact that, according to statistics reported to the Conference last year, there were 111 Churches in which there were no Sunday schools. This suggests the need for an active campaign of Sunday school extension, and we sincerely trust that our pastors will give definite attention to this important matter. The Sunday School Board holds itself ready to coöperate with any pastor who may desire its assistance.

8. We recommend that Dr. W. M. Green be appointed Sunday School Field Secretary.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

We beg to submit the following report as your representatives of the American Bible Society, which is your medium for the propagation of the Word of God, thus lifting humanity out of and away from vice and paganism into a state of purity, peace, and happiness if they will be counseled by the Bible and will walk in its ways. All men and nations who hold to the truths of this Book, who accept and follow its precepts are sure to be blessed; hence the great importance of our people exercising great diligence in stressing the importance of the giving of their means for the spread of this Book of life to all men.

Your collections have been $481.45, which, as against $261.07 last year, shows good increase—nearly double. The greater part of the collections have been forwarded to the home office, and the other will be as soon as Conference adjourns, without one cent of cost to the cause. For every $100 worth of Bibles you furnish about 335 copies to that many souls, or for $1,000 about 3,335 copies to that many souls. Who can deny the fact that this is reasonable for the Tennessee Conference to do? If our preachers.

will move out with the determination to accomplish the raising of the $1,000, it will be done.

In view of the importance of this work, we offer for adoption the following:

"Resolved, That we will give special attention to the collection for this purpose, taking it early in the year and stressing its value."

Respectfully submitted.

T. L. MOODY, President;

JESSE CAGE, Secretary.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

We, your Committee on District Conference Records, beg to submit the following report:

Clarksville District.—The Clarksville District record does not show in the roll call those present and absent. Otherwise it is a neat and well-kept book.

Columbia District.—The record of the Columbia District is complete; but a little more pains in penmanship, together with the use of a blotter, would add greatly to its appearance.

Dickson District.—Could be improved by indicating session at top of each page and by noting presence or absence of members.

Fayetteville District.—Record typewritten and well kept, but not signed by either President or Secretary. Could be improved by indicating session at top of each page.

Franklin District.—Franklin District record gives the full roll, but does not show who were present or absent.

Gallatin District.—The session of the Conference should be indicated. Records neatly kept. We find reports on temperance and education omitted. We think they should have been recorded.

Lawrenceburg District.—Not before the committee.

Lebanon District.—Could be improved by indicating the session of Conference at the top of each page. It should be commended for its neat penmanship.

Murfreesboro District.—Reports as they appear on page 406 should be more distinct. We do not think it necessary for the President and Secretary to sign the minutes of each morning and afternoon session. Their signatures at the close of the Conference session are sufficient.

Nashville District.—Typewritten and perfect in every respect.

The records as a whole are neat and well kept. The Secretaries should be commended for their work.

Respectfully submitted.

CULLEN T. CARTER, Chairman;

J. G. PICKERING, Secretary.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

We, your Committee on Sabbath Observance, beg leave to submit the following report:

We note with deep regret the misapprehension that is so largely prevalent as to the actual purpose of the Sabbath. You cannot interpret the day in the light of any one or any number of unyielding moral precepts. The scribe and Pharisee fell into this grievous error. We must get back of these precepts and see the purpose that moved God to the institution of such a day if we would know how to fittingly observe it.

A too popular interpretation of the Sabbath is that it is a day for physical rest only. Hence the man who is overcharged with the energy of this material and commercial age will say when Sunday comes: "I am too tired for church services; I must get the rest that is guaranteed to my body by the Sabbath commandment, else my nerves will not carry the heavy current of the incoming week's business." He thinks that he finds complete justification for his absence from religious service in this commandment.

While the Sabbath does give an opportunity for rest to many a tired and overwrought body—a rest, however, that is to be found in the house of God, not in lounging—yet the day was not primarily intended as a day of physical rest. God provides for man's physical rest sufficiently when he covers the earth with darkness for a number of hours out of every twenty-four.

The Scripture does not say that God rested on the seventh day because of all his work which he had made; but the thought that is to be gathered from the context is that he ended, completed his work and rested on the seventh day—that is, stopped because there was nothing else to do. A physically broken-down and depleted God at the end of six days of labor would do violence to our conception of him. So God did not intend the Sabbath day as one of physical rest either for himself or man.

The earliest linguistic suggestion that has been found sets before us the most beautiful and only correct interpretation of the Sabbath when it is spoken of not as a day of rest for the body, but as a day of "soul rest"—a day of the soul's home-coming, of its return to God. A day of "soul rest!" A day of return to God out of every seven! A few quiet and undisturbed hours weekly for individual, home, municipality, nation, the world to face God! What infinite good is to be had in such an audience with the Heavenly Father.

We would be without the dear old Book but for a few quiet hours had by Jehovah with the prophets. And if Moses had despised the tedium and painful tranquillity of Median's desert and its mount of God, the history of the Old World would have been written in letters of greater darkness. What inestimable blessings to the world, to every day of time when one man is not afraid to face God the Father!

The chief reason for the country valley and hillsides giving to us almost exclusively the earth's greatest men is because of its numberless quiet hours with God. God demands these quiet hours with every responsible soul and for this reason established the Sabbath, and there should be no intrusion into these hours of the ordinary activities of life save to do necessary good to the bodies of men. Some magazines, many books, and a few newspapers are good and desirable; but if they find their way into the Sabbath to cheat one out of an audience with God, they are incalculable evils.

Certain games and recreations are good at times for the physical man; but if these take the child away from the church and keep the man away from the house of God, they are unmitigated evils. It is unlikely that the boy of a Christian parent who is permitted to go home after Sabbath school to his ball game will as a man prove a troublesome factor when it comes to the enforcement of moral and statutory regulations against Sunday baseball. The baseball game of the city and the frivolous recreations of a city park have deprived masses of a saving knowledge of God.

Open drink stands, soda fountains, and ice cream parlors afford a loitering place for scores of our young and deprive them of a Sabbath's communion with God.

The social hour, when friend mingles with friend and kinsman with kinsman, is an opportunity to be highly prized. Yet when it takes from this person and that and from even a multitude the quiet hours with Jehovah, then we should be alarmed and studiously confine these hours of social enjoyment to other days than the Sabbath.

We would discourage heartily that lax interpretation of the Sabbath now prevalent in many sections, which makes the Sabbath a day of license for almost anything just so one regularly partakes of the sacrament of our Lord's broken body with each recurring Sabbath morn.

It is not needful that we should deal with this question in greater detail. Sufficient is it that we as Christian people are careful to keep regularly out of the Sabbath those things that take from us our quiet hours, our spirit-to-spirit communion with our Lord.

We would put this Conference on record as enthusiastically in favor of and sanctioning all efforts that are being put forth for a more wholesome Sabbath. And that the masses might have a more perfect understanding of the value of the day, we would suggest that every minister of the Conference preach during the year to his several congregations upon this subject.

A great orator and statesman has said that the strength and glory of a nation are to be found in its humble homes. We plead for the right to differ with him. Not in the homes, but in an inviolable Sabbath rest the strength and glory of individual, home, municipality, State, and even of the Church.

Respectfully submitted.

M. P. WOODS, Chairman;

H. T. ALLEN, Secretary.

CHURCH PROPERTY.

We, your Committee on Church Property, submit the following:

The increase in the value of houses of worship is $95,845.86. The increase in other Church property is $33,105. There are 60¾ societies without houses of worship. Two parsonages have been built during the year, leaving forty-eight charges without parsonages. This makes an increase in the valuation of parsonages of $6,400. Our church property is insured for about one-third of its value.

We congratulate our brethren of the ministry and the laity on the substantial improvement in their attention to the following important matters:

1. In providing more adequate insurance on our buildings.
2. In securing to our Church, by the insertion of the "trust clause," all titles to property acquired for Church purposes.
3. That in erecting houses of worship greater care is being exercised in the selection of designs to provide ample facilities for the enterprises of the Church, especially in the way of Sunday school rooms.
4. That the laymen and preachers in charge are more assiduous in their efforts to provide suitable parsonages in all our charges and so locate them as to contribute to the comfort of the preacher and his family.

Respectfully submitted.

PRESTON VAUGHN, Chairman;

W. M. MULLEN, Secretary.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

The Epworth League has had a year of substantial progress wherever it has been faithfully tried. The Nashville District has never known better-organized or more efficient League work than at present.

Our Conference, however, as a whole is far behind our sister Conferences in this department of the Church's life. From all over Southern Methodism comes the report of a forward advance in young people's work. The young Christian life of our nation is girding itself for a mighty struggle with the forces of evil. We call upon our pastors and presiding elders to encourage the organization and maintenance of Epworth Leagues. The Epworth League Board, in conjunction with the Cabinet of the Epworth League Conference, are planning for the organization of the work in each district, a part of which plan includes a District League Conference. Without the aid of the pastor all these plans must fail; with their coöperation their success is assured. .

The Church which neglects its young life is cutting from beneath it the foundation for future years. The fact that in so many congregations there are few if any who can lead in prayer or tell their experiences with God's grace, that our young men and women are not bearing the burden in their youth, that Christian work among young people is increasingly difficult—these considerations suggest to us that we have failed to put the emphasis in our work at the point of largest need. To maintain an Epworth League is no doubt difficult, but the very difficulty is suggestive of the need. Our young people are untrained; they need a guiding hand, and that pastor who leaves an impress upon the life of the young people of his community is building for time and eternity.

We rejoice to note the improvements in the Epworth Era and to know that it is now filling so large a place in the life of the Church. We have never had more efficient leaders than Dr. F. S. Parker and J. Marvin Culbreth. They are directing the Epworth League into a larger and more spiritual mission. The keynote of our life now is evangelism, and we urge our Leagues to lay large emphasis upon this the fundamental work of the Church.

The Epworth Leagues have accepted the budget of the Cuban mission field, amounting to $50,000. We hope this year to raise at least $800 in this Conference for this cause. We urge our Leaguers to adopt the plan of systematic giving.

The Summer Conference for Christian Workers has come to stay, and is one of our most valued agencies for training workers in all departments of Church work.

The Epworth League is the agency for the organization of mission study. The course this year is on Cuba, and we hope that we may largely increase the number of study classes.

We are planning and praying for a great advance in Epworth League work this year, and we call upon our brethren to aid in this work of training the youth of our Church.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

We beg leave to submit the following report:

We are pleased with the communication addressed to our Conference by the Secretary of the General Board of Education. We heartily concur in the suggestion that a Conference Board of Education should be a working body. To carry out this idea more effectively, your Board of Education has decided to hold a midyear meeting in Pulaski, Tenn., on the second Tuesday in August. Your Board has also created a new office of Conference Educational Secretary, that we may undertake and execute larger plans in the field of education in our Conference. The Educational Secretary for the next Conference year will be E. P. Anderson. We also indorse the suggestion of a General Educational Conference, and the Executive Committee has been empowered to name our delegates to such a Conference if one is held. We commend to all who are interested in the additional work of our Church the Bulletin of the Board of Education.

Although the assessment for educational purposes was greater than heretofore because of the increase made by the General Conference, we are glad to report that 85 per cent of the entire amount both for the General Board and our own needs was paid. We recommend that the assessment for Conference educational work be the same the incoming year that it was last year.

The Correspondence School renders invaluable service to our young preachers. We think every one of them should use it more and more and that there is very little excuse for any young preacher under normal conditions not being able to work up his examination. It is a serious reflection on a young man when he allows his examination to fail from year to year. The Conference course is so strong and full that it requires constant energy to get it up. But with the great help of the Correspondence School it can be done.

It is the impression of the Board that no greater help has been offered to our young men than the Biblical Institute offers each year. It seems that great wisdom has been used in the selection of the leaders of thought in this work. They not only represent great individual power and accomplishment, but also, for the most part, are strong in faith, and indicate a simple trust in God. The inspiration that comes from this work must be great for the young preacher. It is very clear that laziness and indifference in the world among men are great sins, and it is clear that they sometimes hurt the ministry. It seems that one great cure for this is to come into vital touch with great spirits. A good book is a good thing, but a living personality is better. We know of nothing more helpful to our young men than for them to meet and know our great men in our Biblical Institute.

We rejoice to hear of the splendid opening of the Methodist Training School at Nashville. The new President, Rev. W. F. Quillian, comes to his task completely furnished for the great work which lies ahead of him. This institution, which is situated in our midst, we heartily commend to our people as a training school for Christian service.

MARTIN COLLEGE.

The Conference Board of Education has the most encouraging report from the President and Trustees of Martin College which has ever been made under the present administration. We embody in this report to the Annual Conference some of the facts given by Professor Wynn to the Board of Education.

The year which closed June 1, 1911, was possibly the most satisfactory in the history of the institution. The present enrollment for the year 1911 and 1912 is already larger than last year, and this fact gives promise of two hundred young ladies in the college before Christmas.

The spirit of the College is thoroughly Christian. There is a Young Women's Christian Association this year about twice as large as that of the past year.

The Alumnæ Society is now making special effort to increase the library of the college.

It has become necessary to rent two residences to be used as dormitories at a cost of $720 for the present year. This fact shows the necessity to raise funds for more buildings.

The Board of Trust is planning to make further reduction of the debt on the college, which is $15,000; and all funds not necessary to be expended on improvements and repairs are being applied to the debt.

We as the Board of Education are more than glad to state to the Conference that Martin College now has an unusually strong faculty of ten regular teachers with five assistants. We have good reason to think that Professor Wynn is rendering to the Tennessee Conference an inestimable service in the enrichment of the life of the young ladies placed under his care, and most heartily commend the college to the liberal patronage of our people. We recommend that Revs. W. B. Taylor, J. J. Stowe, E. B. Chappell, Mr. A. A. Patterson, and Mr. E. J. Childers be reelected members of the Board of Trust.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. J. F. Morelock to a professorship in Ruskin Cave College, D. B. Beene to be a teacher at Carthage Training School, and J. E. McCulloch General Secretary of the American Interchurch College.

JOINT BOARD OF FINANCE.

Report No. 1.

We return herewith the annual report of the Board of Trust for Superannuated Preachers, Widows, and Orphans of your Conference referred to our Board.

We make no recommendation as to the investment of this fund, having full confidence in the discretion and ability of the Board handling said funds. However, we do not think that any part of the income from the securities should be retained to protect the corpus of the fund, but all should be applied yearly for the purposes for which it was donated.

Since the last session of this Conference J. L. Parkes, Sr., who was a member of this Board of Trust for Superannuated Preachers, has died, thus causing a vacancy in said Board. We recommend the election of G. M. Neely, of Nashville, Tenn., as his successor.

Respectfully submitted.

R. P. McCLAIN, Chairman;
J. TAYLOR STRATTON, Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF TRUST FOR FUND FOR SUPERANNUATED PREACHERS.

Your Board of Trust for this fund is composed of H. E. Palmer, of Murfreesboro, Tenn., President; J. H. Fall, Byrd Murray, and P. D. Maddin, of Nashville, Tenn. Mr. J. L. Parkes, Sr., of Franklin, Tenn., was formerly a member, but has died since the last meeting of the Tennessee Conference. The Secretary and Treasurer is P. D. Maddin.

Financial Report.

Corpus.—The corpus of the Trust Estate consists of the following, which is the same as last year:

86 shares of Nashville & Decatur Railroad stock, face value $25 each	$ 2,150 00
2 6% McGavock & Mt. Vernon Street Railway bonds, face value $1,000 each	2,000 00
2 Nashville Street Railway bonds, face value $1,000 each.....	2,000 00
8 5% Birmingham Railway & Electric bonds, face value $1,000 each	8,000 00
10 6% Nashville Title Company bonds, face value $100 each..	1,000 00
6 5% Buffalo Iron Company bonds, face value $100 each.....	600 00
Total face value	$15,750 00

Condition of the Estate.—All the assets of the estate are good, and either paying dividends or paying interest on the bonds except the six 5 per cent Buffalo Iron Company bonds of $100 each. The Buffalo Iron Company property is owned by the Bon Air Coal & Iron Company, and the bonds have been assumed by that company. The bonds are of first mortgage upon the iron properties of that company, and are expected ultimately to be good; but the company went into the hands of a receiver in July, 1910, and in March, 1911, the receivers declined to pay any further interest coupons; consequently the April, 1911, coupons, being six coupons of $2.50 each, were not paid, and are still on hand. These bonds can be sold at approximately seventy-five cents on the dollar, but we have made inquiry of some of the brokers and bankers in Nashville, and they advise holding the bonds, as it is believed they will ultimately be worth one hundred cents on the dollar with the accrued interest; and we advise that this course be taken, but that we be given authority in our discretion, if the bonds improve in value to a fair price, to sell them and reinvest in some other interest-bearing securities.

Income.—All the income which had been received up to October 11, 1910, the date of the last Conference, was paid over to the Joint Board of Finance of the Tennessee Conference. The amount collected since then is as follows:

Jan.	4.	Nashville & Decatur dividend	$ 80 63
July	1.	Nashville & Decatur dividend	80 63
	2.	McGavock & Mt. Vernon Street Railway bonds, Nos. 7 and 24, 6% interest, one year.....	120 00
	2.	Nashville Street Railway bonds, Nos. 156 and 390, 5%.....	100 00
	8.	Birmingham Railway & Electric Light bonds, Nos. 137, 689, 741, 742, 752, 756, 757, 786, 5%.....	400 00
	10.	Nashville Title Company bonds, Nos. 9, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 54, 57, and 59, 6%.....	60 00
Total			$841 26

Inclosed find check for full amount drawn on Union Bank & Trust Company ($841.26).

Your Board respectfully recommend that a small proportion of the annual income upon these securities be retained and invested to protect the fund against diminution by loss or shrinkage. We suggest that 10 per cent of the income be retained each year for this purpose.

BOARD OF MISSIONS.

Report No. 1.

The General Board of Missions in its Conference letter says: "The Secretaries of your Board of Missions rejoice in the belief that our Methodism is at the beginning of an era of enlarged missionary activities. The indications of this are on every hand. Increased missionary intelligence among all classes of our people, the growing zeal of our leaders (both lay and clerical), and the deepening conviction that it is the duty of those now living to give the gospel to the whole world are unmistakable signs of a genuine missionary awakening. The laymen are aroused, the young people in the League and Sunday school are awake, the women of the Church are united and cheered on by their great success, and our presiding elders and pastors are leading in larger plans and better methods. There can be no question that God is making his people willing in this day of his power, and that the Church is ready for a forward movement."

We also feel that the plan of the Parent Board to unify specials and all other features of its work is a good one. As to the cause of missions within our own Conference we feel that some headway has been made this year. We do not look upon the Church as a mere machine with which to collect money for missions; it is a living organism, which should possess, express, and spread the true spirit of missions. Our people must not only be begged or bulldozed into paying the assessments; they must be induced to study, think, pray, and live for the saving of all men everywhere. We earnestly urge our preachers to see that the Sunday schools study the subject, thereby laying deep and broad the foundations of the missionary conscience of the future Church.

We urge our preachers to see that the Missionary Voice, our excellent monthly periodical, be subscribed for and read by our people. A larger number of our members must be educated in this world-wide work of the Church. The day for the occasional impassioned appeal to the emotions has passed. The regular and ever-enlarging payment founded on knowledge and coupled with constant prayer must become the habit of the Church. The claim must rest upon the world's need, our obligation, and opportunity rather than upon a passing impression or emotion.

We must have more mission study classes. This can be accomplished through Sunday schools, Leagues, and women's societies. We must send our young people to the Summer Institute to be trained for leadership in this work.

The Methodist Training School in Nashville deserves and should receive our cordial support.

The women in the Conference, through their societies, are doing a really great work. Let us encourage and assist them; also let us as men be shamed by their zeal and success into renewed and enlarged activities. It would in many cases be more fitting for us to imitate them than to advise or encourage them.

For some years the Board has had one or more missionary evangelists in the field. These men have wrought mightily for God, but changed conditions have caused the Board to decide to discontinue this work for the present. We propose instead to use a large number of our experienced preachers in the summer on our weaker charges. These men of ability and experience are to help without pay the young, inexperienced men.

We must not forget our obligation to the negro race, and we rejoice that our Church is to open a mission in Africa.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. M. M. Stewart as missionary to the negroes in connection with Paine College.

Having agreed upon the following missions, we herewith submit the report for your action:

MEMOIRS.

REV. HENRY SUMMERFIELD LEDBETTER, son of Rev. Willis and Mary Knott Ledbetter, was born in Middle Tennessee on August 18, 1831. His early life was spent in Smith, Maury, and Bedford Counties. His mother died on July 22, 1833, and his father died on August 17, 1844. He was living with his uncle at the time of his conversion, which occurred at home on June 13, 1849, with none present to witness his great joy except an old negro servant. He joined the Church in 1850 at Tarpley's Chapel, in Bedford County, having been baptized in infancy. He was married to Miss America C. Cooper on February 5, 1850. To them were born two sons and one daughter. Both boys died young. The daughter was married to Mr. John Petty in Hickman County, Tennessee. She became the mother of six children and passed to her final reward before her father. At the time of his death there were eight great-grandchildren. His first wife having died, he was married the second time on July 28, 1892, to Miss Sarah Jane Petty, who lives to mourn his death, which was signally triumphant. He was very happy on the day he died and shouted praises to God all the afternoon. His last word, uttered shortly before he died, was "Hallelujah!" He was admitted on trial into the Tennessee Conference at Shelbyville, Tenn., in October, 1868, Bishop H. N. McTyeire presiding. He received his appointments regularly from year to year until October, 1886, when he received the supernumerary relation. In 1888 he received the superannuate relation, which he held until his death. In his later years, while he held these relations, he was faithful and very active, doing all that he could to advance the cause of Christ. The years of his superannuation were spent near Pinewood, Tenn., where he died on February 23, 1911. His funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. E. H. Lantz, assisted by the writer. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity for more than forty years. The Masons also took part in the burial service. He was a Confederate soldier, and followed the flag through the war. He came out with a sound body and an untarnished character. When the war was over, he abandoned the martial spirit and laid aside his carnal weapons. Since the war we have seen in the Confederate veterans the highest type of citizenship, and he was a noble representative of this class. Brother Ledbetter was a typical Tennessean. Industry, constancy, courage, and economy were among his cardinal virtues. His ideals were high. He was actuated by a righteous purpose in everything. He was pure in thought and noble in action. His daily conduct was governed by the inflexible principles of genuine integrity. He was a good man, strong in character and simple in his manner of life. With him there was nothing assumed and merely artificial. Humility was real in his experience. The abundant graces with which his character was so richly adorned were in evidence in his life and in his labors rather than in his profession. In fact, he lived a very high life on a very modest profession. After the example of our Lord, he went about doing good. He was both faithful and efficient in his service to God and men. He served his generation well. In word and action he was positive. Absolute honesty was his only policy. He would not temporize. Diplomacy could hardly be reckoned as one of the assets of his life. The use of cant and deceit never occurred to him. His life was open and transparent. He abhorred all shams and never ensnared anybody purposely in a ruse. He was honest in word and in deed. He was never enamored of or unduly influenced by the honors, riches, and glories of the world. He was not unduly ambitious. Personal honors and preferment he never sought; legitimate responsibilities he never shunned. He was heroic and faithful to the last degree. Under conditions demanding great courage and sacrifice he would have made a martyr and never a traitor. He did what he believed to be right without a thought of what it might cost. In strength of character and in manifest interest he was fitted for the highest type of citizenship. He was a good citizen. Patriotism was to him a sacred thing. He was intelligently on the right side of all patriotic issues. His position on any well-defined issue was an open matter. He was not hasty in his speech, and he never hesitated when principle demanded utterance. He was always ready for service and sacrifice and to endure suffering if necessary. Personal favor and popularity he did not ignore, but he desired the approval of God more than the friendship of the world. Public sentiment, if it were wrong, did not influence him. He never followed the multitude to do evil. With the consciousness that he was right, he was not lonesome with the minority. He never gave his voice nor cast his ballot solely on the suggestion of popular demand. Such was the sturdy, upright character of this prophet of God. His reward is on high. He had no experience in easy places as an itinerant Methodist preacher. In every place that he served the salary was small and the work was hard. Of this he never complained. His appointments were purely providential, so far as he was concerned. He never sought any particular place, and always gave himself as fully as possible to the work that was given him. In pastoral oversight and service he was diligent and faithful. No one excelled him in love for his work and loyalty to his Church. He knew and loved the standards of Methodism; but the Bible was his principal book, and he loved to preach the word of God. His devotion to his Church was as intense and as beautiful as that of the ancient Jew: "If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her cunning. If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth; if I prefer not Jerusalem above my chief joy." The sentiment of his soul was as sweet and pathetic as the finest expressions of the modern poet:

For her my tears shall fall;
For her my prayers ascend;
To her my cares and toils be given,
Till toils and cares shall end.

Beyond my highest joy
I prize her heavenly ways,
Her sweet communion, solemn vows,
Her hymns of love and praise.

More wonderful than the prophet's vision and more beautiful than the poet's dream is all that life upon which he has entered in the Church triumphant.

H. B. REAMS.

MARTIN RUFUS TUCKER, son of George B. and Margaret Tucker, was born on August 17, 1837, in Giles County, Tennessee. He was converted and joined the Church in August, 1844. He was married to Miss Hibernia Doyle in October, 1868. She was the mother of John Doyle, Annie (who died early), Mattie E., and Willis Newton. The last two are still living. She died in July, 1879. He made a brave and manly struggle with the responsibilities that descended upon him. He would take his little Mattie behind him on horseback rather than miss an appointment or leave her in the wrong place. He passed peacefully away at 4:25 A.M. on April 17, 1911. He was admitted on trial into the Tennessee Conference during the session at Clarksville, Tenn., on October 10-18, 1860. He was ordained deacon in October, 1865, by Bishop H. H. Kavanaugh; elder, in 1867, by Bishop Robert Paine. He served the following charges: Savannah Circuit, Waterloo, Chickasaw, Sugar Creek (during the Civil War), Swan Creek (two years), Elkmont, Fayetteville Circuit (two years), Salem, Lynchburg and Marble Plains (two years), Swan, Linden, Salem, Salem and Flintville, Fall River (two years), Fort Worth and Taylor's, Hilham, Short Mountain, New Middleton (two years), Bell Springs, McMinnville Circuit (two years), Woodbury, Laverne, Swan and Summertown. He was superannuated in 1898. After superannuation, he had pastoral work in the West. His last few years were spent in Nashville. His Church membership was first at Carroll Street and then at East End. His assiduous attendance on our Monday morning preachers' meeting, in all the proceedings of which he took the keenest interest, lent life to these occasions. My acquaintance with him began at the session of our Conference held at Cornersville, Tenn., on October 15-20, 1862. I can see his smiling face and cordial manner as he went round shaking hands with the brethren and, if necessary, introducing himself. After that we touched in Conference greeting, if not oftener, until about 1880, when I came to be his presiding elder, which relation existed several times and several years in succession each time. Among many pleasant associations with brethren I never found his surpassed—so courteous, so considerate, so attentive, so obliging, so reliable at every point, so chaste, so full of good humor, always ready for a joke, and rarely missing a chance at innocent pleasantry, and, to cap the climax, so spiritual. No one was more at home in a Holy Ghost revival. We sing:

Prayer is the Christian's vital breath,
The Christian's native air.

That was his element, as fish in water. I have seen him take hold of a handful at a week-day service with a calm confidence that was truly refreshing. He would begin by saying: "The fewer, the better share. If we will use the means God has put for our employment, we will get a blessing." And we would. He was fond of preaching; he never shirked. He could do a great deal of it, and it would not hurt him; his heart was in it. As in "Ben-Hur": "A man's task is always light when his heart is light." Favorite texts with him were: "The Lord God is a sun and shield: the Lord will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly." (Ps. lxxxiv. 11.) "Truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to return. But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly." (Heb. xi. 15, 16.) As he handled these fresh from his knees, he made an impression that the religion of the Bible was a good thing to have and to hold, and heaven a good country to which to emigrate. His sermons were good bracers for whatever might come in life, death, or eternity. He showed that he believed the chief thing in preaching is to save sinners and forward Christianity. He was absolutely fearless. At the same time he was gentle and kind. Be trying to do right, and you would have no trouble with him. But try to run over him, take care! That eagle eye was not his for naught. The Christian faith in its essential features rarely had a more fearless defender. He would attack any one or any number who encroached in the least on what he believed to be a Christian principle or doctrine. Sentinel was never more watchful than he was for Zion. Christian seldom had a more satisfactory, firmly grounded personal experience in religion than he. He could say, with all the depth and height and breadth of meaning, for Martin R. Tucker as for St. Paul: "I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day." (2 Tim. i. 12.) Few fathers ever gave themselves more cheerfully and fully to their children. A noble ambition to fit them for usefulness possessed him, and he did it. Sacred sweets shed their fragrance about the memory of Martin R. Tucker. Let his children and the rest of us bind the memory of this dauntless spiritual Christian in our lives. Follow the fortunes of the great Captain as he did, with an integrity that nothing could shake, and no fear for time or for eternity. Flowers and fruits will grow in our lives that no winter can chill and no drought can blight. Those who knew him longest and best will love him most. His failings, whatever they may have been, were all hid in Jesus. Whoever looked into his heart with uncritical eye could see mirrored there the image of his Lord that covered up all human frailty. He came without any fear or misgiving to the last hour. It was in my power to visit him twice after physicians said his case was hopeless. We talked and prayed together both times. The last visit was on Saturday afternoon before he passed away on Tuesday morning. The past rushed upon us, the future lay in cloudless beauty before us, and in communion with our Lord we were happy in the hope of immortality. Dead? No. He nestled close in the bosom of Infinite Love, taking therefrom unto himself the words that keep a live wire between earth and heaven. "I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die." (John xi. 25, 26.) A good father, a faithful friend, a worthy brother, a devoted servant of Christ has gone to his reward.

And life's long warfare closed at last,
His soul is found in peace.

A more chivalrous heart never beat in any bosom in any cause than his to Christ's. His whole being responded to the One he loved better than he loved his life. Every particle of his nature he gave over to Jesus to use in any way at any moment. So it was from the early morning till the late evening, when the Master said: "It is enough; come up higher."

T. L. MOODY.

ROBERT RANDOLPH JONES, son of Rev. E. L. and Lavinia Johnson Harris Jones, was born March 18, 1838, in Bedford County, Tennessee. He was converted and joined the Church July 27, 1857, being nineteen years of age. He was admitted on trial into the Tennessee Conference in October, 1861, at Athens, Ala. He served the following charges: Wayne Circuit (four years), Fayetteville Circuit (one year), Manchester Circuit (one year), Middleton Circuit (one year), Cornersville Station (two years), Trinity Station (one year), Wesley Circuit (two years), Unionville Circuit (one year), Stone's River Circuit (one year), Savannah Station (one year), Centerville District (four years), Carroll Street Station (one year), West End (one year), Elkton Station (two years), Carroll Street (four years), McTyeire Memorial (one year), Columbia District (one year), Winchester Station (one year), Trinity Station (one year), Dickson District (three years), North High Street (two years), Park Avenue (one year), Waverly Place (one year), Brentwood (one year). This closed his fortieth year in the itinerancy. The next ten years were as follows: Waverly Place (two years), Park Avenue (two years), Fillmore (one year), Walnut Grove (one year), Hustburg (four years). From the parsonage at Hustburg his released spirit passed into the skies September 11, 1911. He was first married to Miss Sallie Tarpley, who was born and reared four miles from Murfreesboro, Tenn., and lived after marriage only eighteen months. His second marriage was forty-one years ago to

Miss Emma Paschall, of Spring Hill, Tenn. She was truly devoted to him and his work and the cause of Christ. They adopted a sweet little girl, daughter of Mr. Sam Carmack and niece of Senator Carmack. She is now Mrs. L. B. Ormes, Nashville, Tenn. His third marriage was to Miss Dora B. Neil, daughter of Mr. W. F. Neil, near Shelbyville, Tenn. This marriage was celebrated in July, 1907. She survives him. Answering a recent letter of mine in which I congratulated him on being so well furnished for life's afternoon in a companion for his heart, he replied: "Yes, wife and I are happy. She is a benediction to me." As stated in the Midland Methodist: "If he had lived three weeks longer, he would have rounded out a half century of active ministerial labor without a solitary break in his appointments." The Christian Advocate truly says of him: "A man devoted to his Church, and one whose life proved the truth of the gospel he preached, he comes to the end of the journey with a good record. He was a faithful servant and soldier of the Lord Jesus. He never shrank from duty. He was glad, so far as those most intimate with him knew, of every appointment he ever had. And after getting it, he served each after the Pauline fashion: 'As much as in me is.' (Rom. i. 15.) He was so brotherly and genial and cordial and hopeful, it was a joy and a blessing to meet him. He was so sound in Christian faith and experience he could lead others into the secret of the Lord—that is, with them that fear him. (Ps. xxv. 14.)" He was looking with great interest to this session of our Conference as completing fifty years of active service. He has fled, not ingloriously, but at the Master's call. It found him on the field, his sword was in his hand still warm with recent fight, ready that moment to command through rock and steel to smite.

Servant of God, well done!
Rest from thy loved employ;
The battle fought, the victory won,
Enter the Master's joy.
